

Consolation - from "The Fewcott Part Book"

The voice that speaks Je - ho - vah near, The still - small voice - I A - shamed I must for ev - er be, a fraid the God of

The voice that speaks Je - ho - - vah near, The still small voice I A - shamed I must for ev - er be, a fraid the God of Air The voice that speaks Je - ho - vah - near, The still small voice - I A - shamed I must - for ev - er be, a fraid the God of

The voice that speaks Je - ho - vah near, The still - small voice - I A - shamed I must for ev - er be, a fraid - the God of long to hear love to see long to hear O might it now the Lord pro - claim And love to - see If saints and pro-phets hide their face and

long to hear O might it now the Lord pro - claim And
 love to see If saints and pro-phets hide their face and

long to hear O might it now the Lord pro - claim And
 love to see If saints and pro-phets hide their face and

and fill my soul with and an-gels trem-ble fill my soul with ho-ly shame and fill my soul with an-gels trem-ble while they gaze and an-gels trem-ble

fill my soul with ho-ly shame and fill- my soul- with
an-gels trem-ble while they gaze and an-gels trem-ble

fill my soul with ho-ly shame and fill my soul with
an-gels trem-ble while they gaze and an-gels trem-ble

ho-ly shame
while they gaze

ho-ly shame
while they gaze

ho-ly shame
while they gaze

ho-ly shame
while they gaze