

PSALM XXIV (Verse 7)

P 110

B \flat Clarinet

Words by John Hopkins,
from the Scottish Psalter of 1635

Joseph Key of Nuneaton

The musical score is arranged in four systems. The first system includes Tenor (Ten.), Alto (Alt.), and Bass staves. The Alto staff is marked 'Sym' and contains a trill (tr) in the final measure. The second system continues the instrumental parts for Tenor, Alto, and Bass, with trills in the final measures of the Tenor and Alto staves. The third system features vocal lines for Tenor and Bass, with the lyrics 'Ye gates, ye gates and e - ver last - ing' written below the Tenor staff. The Bass staff has a trill in the final measure. An instrumental part (Inst.) is also present below the vocal lines. The fourth system continues the vocal lines for Tenor and Bass with the lyrics 'doors, lift up your heads, lift up your heads on high.' and includes an instrumental part (Inst.) with a trill in the final measure.

Originally entitled "Verse 7", it actually includes verse 8.

Alto line originally set octave higher.

Bar 52-53 Alto line, fuguing entry omitted by Key in original.
