

Sing Birmingham 2015!

Another Celebration of West Gallery Music and Carols

Saturday 7th November 2015

Every other year Immanuel's Ground, Warwick's west gallery Quire, have held a music workshop in the Birmingham area with the title 'Sing Birmingham - A Celebration of West Gallery Music', aimed at singers and instrumentalists who would like to spend a day finding out more about this uniquely English form of church and secular music. This year's workshop will include Carols, Anthems and a Glee or two, written by both town and country composers, including some from Birmingham itself.

Sing Birmingham 2015!

SATURDAY 7th NOVEMBER 2015

A warm invitation is extended to join in a day of West Gallery music. The cost will be £10 per person. A book of music and light refreshments will be provided. Either bring your own lunch, or local hostelrys are available in the immediate area.

The day's singing and playing will be held at St Nicolas' Church, King's Norton, Birmingham, B38 8RU, between 10.00 a.m. and 4.30 p.m., doors opening at 9.30 a.m. for coffee. A link to a map showing how to get there is provided on the website.

Singers and instrumentalists are welcomed, including trumpets and trombones, although heavy brass (euphoniums etc) are very out of character for the period.

To allow for printing and to enable the production of music books, please return your completed booking form no later than Friday, 30th October 2015, preferably before. Some individual pieces of music for prior practice will be available from approximately mid-October on the website at <http://www.immanuelsground.com/sb15music.htm>
