6 Our hopes are fixed, that now the Lord
our sov'reign will defend;
From heav'n resistless aid afford,
and to his prayer attend.

7 Some trust in steeds for war designed,
on chariots some rely;
against them all we'll call to mind
the pow'r of God most high.

8 But, from their steeds and chariots thrown,
behold them through the plain,
Disordered, broke, and trampled down,
whilst firm our troops remain.

9 Still save us, Lord, and still proceed
Our rightful cause to bless:
Hear, King of Heav'n, in times of need
The prayers that we address.

This setting of Psalm XX Old Version is taken from 'Thirty Psalm Tunes in Four Parts, with symphonies, Interludes and an Instrumental Bass ...' composed by John Valentine of Belgrave Gate, Leicester, pub. [1784]. BL B440.(2).

Subscribers to the collection include the choir of Stoneleigh Church, Warks.,
and four individual residents of the village of Stoneleigh.
